Description

This DemoPro table has everything you need for professional food demonstrations. With FDA approved materials it continues to be a supermarket success since 1987. The Ultimate DemoPro folds for storage and transports easily with its built in casters. The food grade stainless steel serving counter compliments the extremely durable and easy to clean molded high impact polyethylene body. With the built in electrical cord and the under counter work area with shelf makes it easy to do food samplings.

Lifetime Guarantee

Intercept Corporation guarantees that the Ultimate DemoPro Sampling Stations will be free from factory defects or breakage under normal use for the life of the product.
